Shoot the Arrow Around the Corner A Workshop by Torgeir Wethal (Odin Teatret, Denmark)

Date: Thursday 02 – Saturday 04 August 2007

Time: 10:00 – 14:00

Venue: MITP Theatre, St Christopher Street, Valletta

The Workshop will focus on:

- Creating the base for the development of the actor's personal physical training
- The quality of the scenic presence through the play of intentions and the play of oppositions in thought and action
- Improvisation with fixed elements – fixed actions
- 'Translation' of big physical actions to scenic language which has 'a naturalistic size'

Torgeir Wethal actor, teacher and director, was born in 1947, in Oslo, Norway. Torgeir is one of the founders of Odin Teatret in whose performances he has participated since its beginning in 1964. His professional experiences are published in The Actor's Way edited by Erik Exe Christoffersen. He is in charge of the production of Odin Teatret Film and has directed several films about Odin Teatret's own performances and travels as well as the actor's training of Etienne Decroux, Jerzy Grotowski and Odin Teatret.

Torgeir has performed in the following performances by Odin Teatret: Ornitofilene, Kaspariana, Ferai, Min Fars Hus, The Book of Dances, Come! And the Day will be Ours, Anabasis, The Million, Brecht's Ashes, The Gospel According to Oxyrhincus, Talabot, Rum i kejserens palads, Kaosmos, Inside the Skeleton of the Whale, Ode to progress, Mythos, Great cities under the moon, Andersens drøm, Don Giovanni all'Inferno, Ur-Hamlet.
